Questions to ask after getting a diagnosis

- What type of nasopharyngeal cancer do I have?
- What is the stage and grade of the cancer? What does this mean?
- Can you explain my pathology report (laboratory test results) to me?

Questions to ask before treatment

- What are my treatment options?

- What clinical trials are open to me? Where are they located, and how do I find out more about them?
- What treatment plan do you recommend? Why?
- What is the goal of each treatment? Is it to eliminate the cancer, help me feel better, or both?
- Should I get an additional consultation or second opinion?
- Who will be part of my health care team, and what does each member do?
- Who will be coordinating my overall treatment?
- Can you recommend an oncologic dentist before treatment begins?
- Should I see a speech pathologist before starting treatment? Why or why not?

Questions to ask about managing side effects

- What are the possible side effects of each treatment, both in the short term and the long term?
- What can be done to prevent or manage these side effects?
- How will this treatment affect my daily life? Will I be able to work, exercise, and perform my usual activities?
- Could this treatment affect my sex life? If so, how and for how long?
- Could this treatment affect my ability to become pregnant or have children? If so, should I talk with a fertility specialist before cancer treatment begins?
- If I'm worried about managing the costs related to my cancer care, who can help me with these concerns?

- What support services are available to me? To my family?
- Whom should I call for questions or problems?
- Is there anything else I should be asking?

Questions to ask about having radiation therapy or chemotherapy

- What type of treatment is recommended?
- What is the goal of this treatment?
- How long will it take to give this treatment?
- What side effects can I expect during treatment?
- What are the possible long-term effects of having this treatment?
- What can be done to relieve the side effects?

Questions to ask about having surgery

- What type of surgery will I have?
- Will lymph nodes be removed? If so, what type of dissection will be done? What does this mean?
- Will it be necessary to have reconstruction done to replace lost tissue around the mandible (lower jaw bone)?
- How long will the operation take?

- How long will I be in the hospital?
- Can you describe what my recovery from surgery will be like?
- What are the possible long-term effects of having this surgery?

Questions to ask about planning follow-up care

- What is the risk of the cancer returning? Are there signs and symptoms I should watch for?
- What long-term side effects or late effects are possible based on the cancer treatment I received?
- When can I expect to recover from the treatment effects?
- Will there be any lasting or late side effects that will need special care?
- What follow-up tests will I need, and how often will I need them?
- What will type(s) of rehabilitation will I need after treatment has finished?
- How do I get a treatment summary and survivorship care plan to keep in my personal records?
- Who will be coordinating my follow-up care?
- What survivorship support services are available to me? To my family?
