Questions to ask after getting a diagnosis

- Is my tumor cancerous?
- Is the tumor still making hormones? What does this mean?
- Can you explain my pathology report, or laboratory test results, to me?

Questions to ask about choosing a treatment and managing side effects

- How many patients with this type of tumor do you treat each year?
- Do you attend expert meetings to discuss complicated tumor issues? What kinds of specialists attend such meetings?
- What clinical trials are available for me? Where are they located, and how do I find out more about them?
- What treatment plan do you recommend? Why?
- Should I get a second opinion?
- What is the goal of each treatment? Is it to eliminate the tumor, help me feel better, or both?
- What are the possible side effects of each treatment, both in the short term and the long term?
- Who will be part of my health care team, and what does each member do?
- Who will be leading my overall treatment?
- Are you willing to follow my case if I have my treatments provided in another center?
- How will this treatment affect my daily life? Will I be able to work, exercise, and perform my usual activities?
- Could this treatment affect my sex life? If so, how and for how long?
- Could this treatment affect my ability to become pregnant or have children? If so, should I talk with a fertility specialist before treatment begins?
- If I am worried about managing the costs of medical care, who can help me?

- What support services are available to me? To my family?
- Whom should I call for questions or problems?
- Is there anything else I should be asking?
- Do you have reading material that would help me understand my disease?

Questions to ask about having surgery?

- What type of surgery will I have? Will lymph nodes be removed?
- How experienced is the surgeon with this specific type of surgery?
- How long will the operation take?
- How long will I be in the hospital?
- Can you describe what my recovery from surgery will be like?
- What are the possible long-term effects of having this surgery?
- How successful is surgery to remove this type of tumor?
- Do you recommend additional treatment after surgery?

Questions to ask about having radiation therapy, chemotherapy, or other treatment

- What type of treatment is recommended?
- What is the goal of this treatment?

- How long will it take to give this treatment?
- What side effects can I expect during treatment?
- What are the possible long-term effects of having this treatment?
- What can be done to relieve the side effects?

Questions to ask about planning follow-up care

- What is the risk of the tumor returning?
- What long-term side effects or late effects are possible based on the treatment I received?
- What follow-up tests will I need, and how often will I need them?
- How do I get a treatment summary and survivorship care plan to keep in my personal records?
- Who will be leading my follow-up care?
- What survivorship support services are available to me? To my family?
